

CALL FOR PAPERS 2014

As part of the celebrations to mark the 100th anniversary of Joseph Conrad's return visit to Cracow in 1914 and the 90th anniversary of his death in 1924 – and also the 650th anniversary of the founding of the Jagiellonian University in 1364 -- the Jagiellonian University Joseph Conrad Research Centre and the Joseph Conrad Society (Poland) invite Conrad scholars to take part in a conference to be held at the Jagiellonian University in Cracow from 28-30th September 2014.

The main theme of this year's conference is:

“Poland and the Conrad Problem (Polskie zmagania z Conradem): Conrad's reception in his home country and abroad.”

At this year's conference some papers may be in Polish, but all abstracts must be in English. All papers subsequently published in the conference volume of the “Yearbook of Conrad Studies (Poland)” will, of course, be in English.

DETAILS

- The venue of the conference will be the Michal Bobrzynski Room of the Collegium Maius (the University's oldest building) at 15, Jagiellonska Street.
- The conference fee will be 100 euros (students pay half).
- Participants will be offered accommodation for four nights at the University guest house in Garbarska Street:
 - 1) single rooms -- 180 zloties / 43 euros (approx.) per night (breakfast included)
 - 2) double rooms -- 290 zloties / 69 euros (approx.) per night (breakfast included)

Dinner will cost about 70 zloties / 17 euros.

DEADLINES

The deadline for proposing papers and / or registering participation is 30th May 2014.

The deadline for sending abstracts is 30th June 2014.

The deadline for payment of the conference fee + a deposit of 100 euros is 15th July 2014.
